

Quote

Book Illustration

Proposal Date:

Project: Book Illustration

Important notes:

The price quote is solely for the Works (as defined below) and does not include the purchase of any photos, fonts or digital rights. If requested, the customer will be solely responsible for the expenses of any such purchases.

In the first stage of the illustration when it is still in outlines, the number of reviews is unlimited. From the coloring stage, the process is limited to one round of reviews per illustration. The changes will be made and the file will be sent back to the author. In case there are significant changes or additions or from the second round, the pricing is according to the hourly amount of NIS 150.

The Work will be delivered to the client in a print-ready pdf format and jpg format or png (if needed). I will comment the Work upon receipt of half of the price quote. The final file will be transferred upon receipt of the remainder of the price quote.

Payment are to be made in cash, check or bank transfer.

A receipt will be sent upon payment submission.

By approving this document, the client agrees that the final product and any designs / sketches worked on in connection with the Works may be published on the designer social networks.

The client also undertakes to place a "illustrated by" credit to be clearly placed alongside the Works wherever they may be published and/or uploaded.

Timing will vary based on customer repairs and additions.
